Testimonials:

John Landis, Director

Claire Bueno is passionate about film-making and the movies. Her questions are always well thought out, detailed and focused. The Premiere Scene team are extremely professional and always a pleasure to work with. Their interviews flow with ease and are completely engaging. I always look forward to speaking with them.

Dexter Fletcher, Director, Actor

I've done many red carpet events and I am always happy to see Claire's face on the line. Not only does she love films and everything that goes into making them but she asks the questions that get you thinking and talking. A great interviewer who loves her subject. Wish there were more like her ...

Claire is a regular on the red carpet and moderating film Q&A's throughout the UK.

She is a regular Q&A host at the Arthouse, London an independent picture house. Guests have included Director Dexter Fletcher, actor Toby Jones, actor James Cosmo, actress Juliet Stevenson, actor Bill Paterson, actor Daniel Mays, actor Ralph Ineson.

Claire had the privilege of working for BAFTA hosting a Q&A to an intimate audience for BAFTA's exclusive Academy Circle, interviewing actor and performance capture pioneer Andy Serkis. The evening was a great success and was certainly a great highlight.

Claire has also moderated for Apple at their London Regent Street venue in a programme of events called Meet The Cast: BBC's The Musketeers to a large audience of the show's fans. Claire also hosted Q&A's part of Meet The Cast and chatted to Celia Imrie about acting, the film The Second Best Marigold Hotel and about becoming an author.

Claire started her presenting career at the Active Radio Station in South Devon where she had her own show as well as working as part of a team in the Sunday request show.

Wanting to pursue a TV presenting career she knew she would need to move to London. Utilizing her IT skills Claire became one of QVC's guest presenters specialising in technology. Nothing can quite prepare you for the thrill of live TV and having to fix a printer live on air was certainly a baptism by fire!

From QVC Claire went to work for Legal TV where she performed several voice overs but predominantly to be the presenter and interviewer of Work Wise a programme designed to see how the law affects the daily lives of businesses. Claire had the pleasure of interviewing a pioneer in recycling, a kid's club martial arts teacher but her most memorable experience was interviewing a veterinary surgeon whilst neutering a dog!

She has a passion for film so when she was chosen to launch a new entertainment channel Leicester Square TV she had found her spiritual home. Having spent a number of years at LSQ.TV interviewing film and TV celebrities Claire embarked on an exciting new project to launch a new channel committed to the craft of filmmaking Premiere Scene.

Premiere Scene has given Claire the opportunity to utilize her producing skills as well as honing her interview technique where she has interviewed Hollywood's finest A-list movie stars such as George Clooney, Matthew McConaughey, Cate Blanchett, Harrison Ford, Gillian Anderson, Mark Ruffalo and home grown talent including Dame Helen Mirren, Tom Hiddleston, Michael Fassbender, Kate Winslet, Tom Hardy, Keira Knightley, Mark Rylance and Sir Ben Kingsley. Via Premiere Scene Claire has worked with Getty Images, reported from Cannes film festival for movieScope Magazine and recently launched Pearl and Dean Premieres in a sponsored pre-reel show broadcast in cinemas nationwide which she hosted and produced.

In 2015 Claire moderated panel talks with the cast of Ghostbusters, Game Of Thrones, Doctor Who, Star Wars, Red Dwarf and Poltergeist with stars including Ernie Hudson, James Cosmo, Colin Baker, Chris Barrie and Norman Lovett at Optimus South West Film and TV Convention to an audience of over 300 people per sitting.

Claire is still the main presenter at Premiere Scene and continues to grow the successful channel.
